2019-20 Request to Consider Special Circumstances for Financial Aid Reconsideration

STUDENT NAME_____ VU ID# (or SSN)_____

If you and/or your parent have extraordinary expenses or one-time income which may affect your ability to contribute to college expenses, you could qualify for a re-evaluation of eligibility. Unusual circumstances include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Reduction to household income (i.e. job loss or salary reduction, retirement, death of wage earner, etc.); must be a total loss of at least 20% from 2017 year income
- Legal separation/divorce after filing the 2019-20 FAFSA
- 2018 out-of-pocket, paid medical expenses of at least 10% of AGI (not covered by insurance, HSA, etc)
- Parent attending college in 2019-20 - tuition expenses
- K-12 tuition to be paid during 2019-20 school year for student's siblings or dependents (at least $5000 out of pocket expense)
- Parent's own student loan payments or PLUS Loan payments for student or student's siblings

NOTE: more than one circumstance can be combined to achieve minimum $ thresholds

Circumstances must be communicated in writing with specifics concerning the particular situation, such as dates, amounts, etc. Please use the space below to explain such the circumstance(s).

Additional paperwork will be requested and must be submitted before the re-evaluation will be considered.
